Dr. Arthur Schlesinger
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Dr. Schlesinger:

John A. McCone, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to ILLEGIB thank you for checking with us regarding [redacted] letter to you of 3 August 1962.

STAT

Mr. McCone appreciates [redacted] offer to be a consultant on a daily or temporary basis to inspect the OSS "War Diary," with a view to utilize any of the material that seems to him to hold promise. It is regretted that CIA may not take advantage of [redacted] offer.
The "War Diary" is classified and is used for reference purposes. It has not been made available, in whole or part, to researchers, writers or any but active U.S. Government intelligence personnel. As you may know it has operational value in current activities of the intelligence community and in some instances individuals listed in it are still engaged in intelligence activities.
